Kamau Bobb, Ph.D.
Founding Senior Director
Constellations Center for Equity in Computing
Georgia Institute of Technology

Kamau Bobb is a national authority in STEM education. He is the founding Senior Director of the Constellations Center for Equity in Computing at Georgia Tech and a former Program Director at the National Science Foundation. He is an engineer and science and technology policy scholar whose work focuses on the relationship between equity for students and communities of color in the STEM enterprise, large educational systems, and the social and structural conditions that influence contemporary American life.

Theme: True Collaboration
Topic: Navigating Interdisciplinary and Intersectional Collaborations

Questions? Visit cgest.asu.edu/grant-workshop or email cgest@asu.edu. Space is limited, register today.

Register here: cgest.asu.edu/grant-workshop/register

ASU Center for Gender Equity in Science and Technology
Arizona State University